

Roger Johnson

Chief Supply Chain Officer

Roger Johnson was named Chief Supply Chain Officer for Keurig Dr Pepper (KDP) in October 2022. He is responsible for the Company's end-to-end supply chain, including manufacturing, procurement, logistics, warehousing, transportation and quality, environment, health and safety.

Johnson joined KDP in 2016 and has held several leadership positions across the supply chain and R&D organizations, including Chief Product Officer for the Keurig brand and Senior Vice President, Global Product Organization and GM Asia. In those roles, he established KDP's global operations center in Singapore, diversified the organization's brewer manufacturing network across Asia and designed highly successful brewer innovation strategies.

With more than 20 years of experience in consumer durables, electronics, food and beverage and automotive industries, Johnson has held leadership roles in product development, engineering and supply chain for organizations including BISSELL Homecare, Whirlpool Corporation and Ford Motor Company.

He holds a bachelor's and master's degree in engineering from Purdue University and an MBA from the University of Michigan.
